COCONUT TELEGRAPH

www.margaritaville.com

Our sense of humor is one of our most precious natural resources as Americans, and we will put this tragedy behind us and dance again.

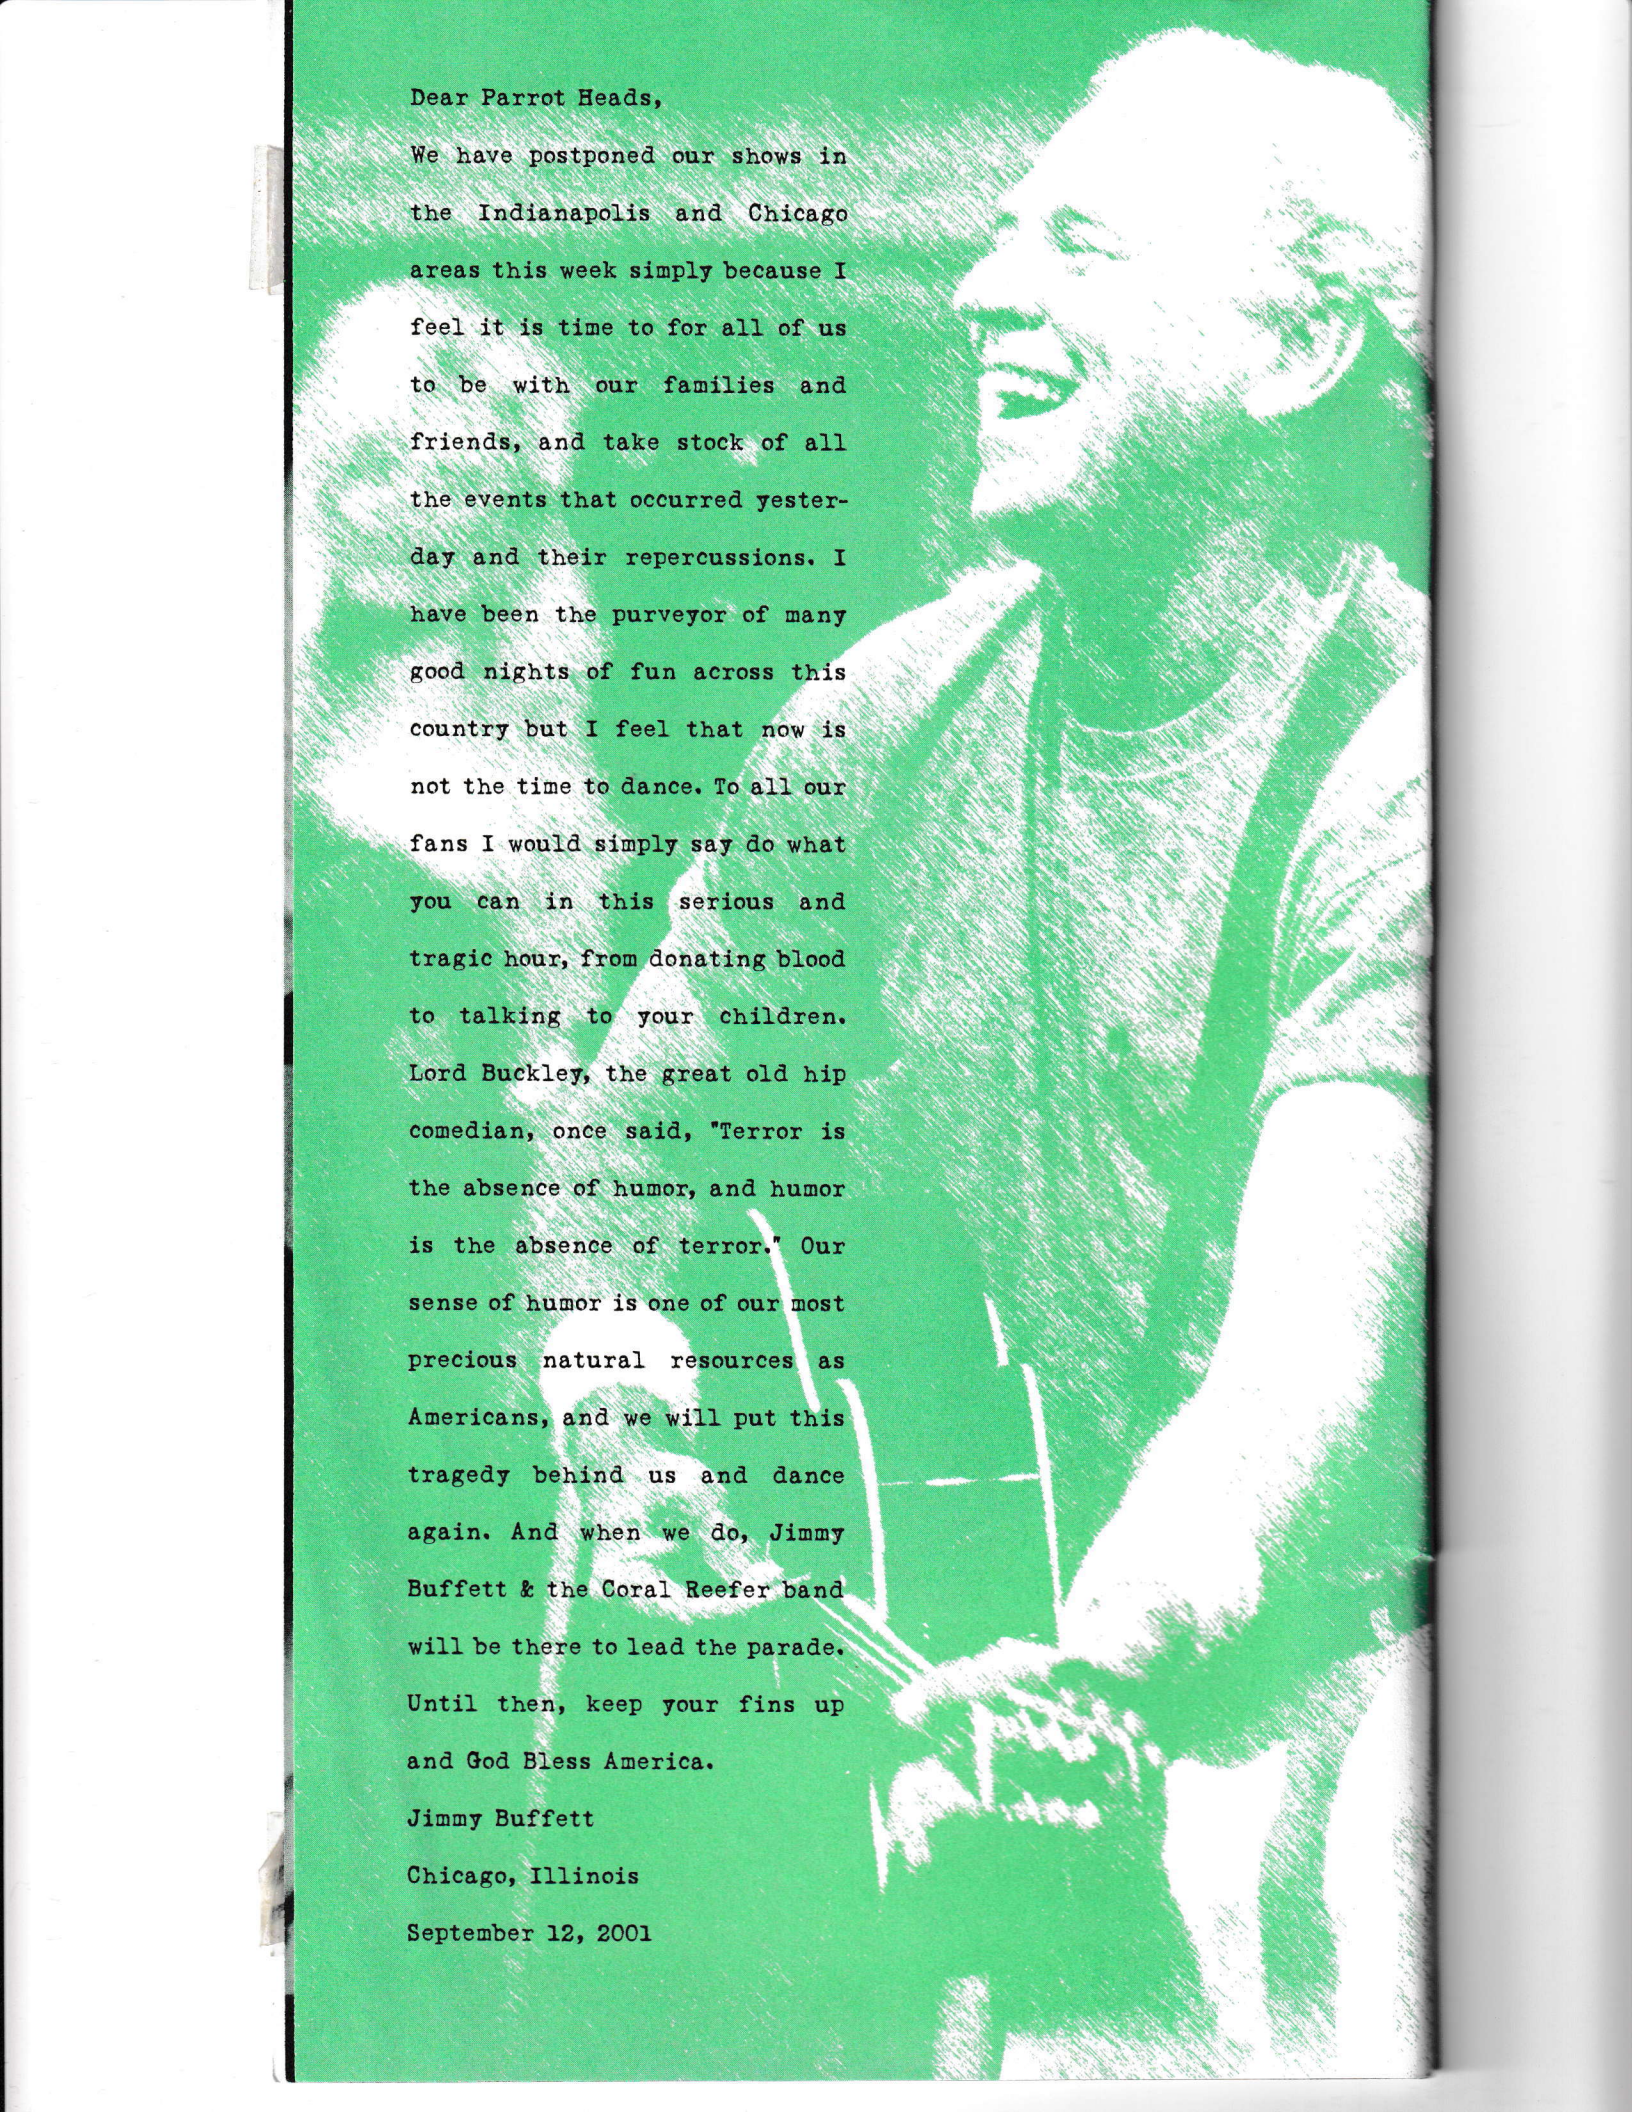

And when we do, Jimmy Buffett & the Coral Reefer band will be there to lead the parade. Until then, keep your fins up and God Bless America.

Jimmy's latest CD is being produced and distributed by Buffett's own Mailboat Records. The CD, produced by Russ Titelman (Eric Clapton, Randy Newman, James Taylor), will feature many new originals as well as some cover tunes, including "The U.S.S. Zydecoldsmobile", written by Sonny Landreth and another Bruce Cockburn song, "All The Ways I Want You." Jimmy recorded Bruce Cockburn's "Pacing The Cage" on Beach House On The Moon. Other guest performers include horn player Jim Horn and Stewart Duncan on fiddle. No release date as of October 3.

Dear Parrot Heads,

We have postponed our shows in the Indianapolis and Chicago areas this week simply because I feel it is time to for all of us to be with our families and friends, and take stock of all the events that occurred yesterday and their repercussions. I have been the purveyor of many good nights of fun across this country but I feel that now is not the time to dance. To all our fans I would simply say do what you can in this serious and tragic hour, from donating blood to talking to your children. Lord Buckley, the great old hip comedian, once said, "Terror is the absence of humor, and humor is the absence of terror." Our sense of humor is one of our most precious natural resources as Americans, and we will put this tragedy behind us and dance again. And when we do, Jimmy Buffett & the Coral Reefer band will be there to lead the parade. Until then, keep your fins up and God Bless America.

We received numerous letters and emails regarding the World Trade Center tragedy, and think this one best illustrates the incongruity of the event. A midwestern fireman swept into this horrible ordeal.

SUBJECT: INDIANAPOLIS CONCERT

DATE: SUN, 16 SEP 2001 23:52:40 EDT

SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 16, 2001

HELP ME GET THIS MESSAGE THROUGH!

DEAR JIMMY,

ON MONDAY SEPTEMBER 10, MY FIANCEE AND I WERE CELEBRATING HIS 50TH BIRTHDAY. ONE OF HIS FAVORITE GIFTS WERE 2 TICKETS TO YOUR CONCERT SCHEDULED IN INDIANAPOLIS ON SEPTEMBER 11.

THE NEXT DAY STARTED SO NORMAL. HE LEFT FOR HIS REGULARLY SCHEDULED SHIFT ON THE INDIANAPOLIS FIRE DEPARTMENT. I WAS DROPPING MY 8 YEAR OLD DAUGHTER AT THE BUS STOP WHEN THE HORROR OF THE DAY WAS BEGINNING TO UNFOLD. I HAD TO STOP ON MY WAY TO WORK AND JUST GRAB HIM AND LET HIM KNOW HOW THANKFUL I WAS THAT HE WAS NOT A NEW YORK CITY FIRE-FIGHTER. GLUED TO A TV SET, I FOUND OUT THAT INDIANA'S FEMA TASKFORCE #1 WAS BEING DEPLOYED TO NEW YORK. WE HAD LITTLE TIME TO SAY GOODBYE, AND ONE OF THE LAST THINGS HE SAID WAS TO GO TO THE FIREHOUSE AND GET THE TICKETS SO THAT AT LEAST I COULD GO. WHEN I TOLD HIM THE CONCERT WAS CANCELLED, HE KIND OF SMILED AND SAID "WELL MAYBE I'LL SEE HIM AFTER ALL."

THESE PAST FEW DAYS SEEM TO BE GOING IN SLOW MOTION. EVERY CONVERSATION I'VE BEEN ABLE TO HAVE WITH HIM HAVE GROWN MORE DESPARATE, MORE SHOCKED AND MORE AND MORE EXHAUSTED. THESE WONDERFUL AND BRAVE MEN HAVE BEEN STARING INTO THE GATES OF HELL FOR THE PAST SIX DAYS, YET REFUSE TO GIVE UP HOPE THAT EVEN ONE PERSON CAN BE RESCUED ALIVE. THREE OF HIS TEAMMATES WERE INJURED IN A FLASH FIRE EARLY THIS MORNING, YET REFUSE TO BE SENT HOME, WANTING TO HELP THEIR FELLOW AMERICANS AND THEIR FALLEN BROTHERS ON NEW YORK'S FIRE AND POLICE DEPARTMENTS THAT HAVE SO QUICKLY AND TRAGICALLY BEEN TAKEN AWAY FROM FAMILIES AND LOVED ONES. NOT BY THEIR CHOICE, BUT BY REGULATIONS THAT CAN ONLY LEAVE A FEMA TEAM ON A DISASTER FOR TEN DAYS, THESE GREAT GUYS WILL BE COMING HOME ON THURSDAY. I AM HOPING HE WILL BE UP TO COMING TO YOUR RESCHEDULED CONCERT AND AM ASKING IF YOU COULD PLEASE DEDICATE A SONG TO THIS VERY DISCOURAGED AND WORN OUT TEAM, ALONG WITH EVERY COURAGEOUS PERSON WHO IS TRYING TO PUT THIS WORLD RIGHT AGAIN.

JUST A FEW MONTHS AGO, WE WERE LYING ON A BEACH IN SAN PEDRO, BELIZE, DRINKING A PURPLE PARROT AND SINGING YOUR SONGS. NOW I KNOW ALL OF OUR LIVES WILL NEVER BE SO SIMPLE AND HAPPY AGAIN. I WOULD LIKE TO THINK THAT YOUR MUSIC MIGHT HELP A LITTLE FOR ONE NIGHT.

GOD BLESS YOU,

KATHYRN JOYCE

Montego Bay, Jamaica,
The Sunday Gleaner
Janet Silvera , Western Bureau

When United States singing star Jimmy Buffett entered the restaurant Jimmy Buffett's Margaritaville last Sunday at the Sangster International Airport, Montego Bay, American actress Lynn Whitfield was busy signing autographs. But her limelight was soon stolen as fans swarmed Buffett.

"We have created a good place for people to have fun and a nice working environment for the staff," Buffett said as he looked around the eatery which bears his name. He signed autographs, posed for photographs and played the perfect host. Memorabilia representing all aspects of his life - books, T-shirts, hats, bags, cups - went like hot bread."

While the fans came to show their support for his latest joint venture with businessmen Ian Dear and Brian Jardim, Buffett came to place his stamp of approval. An endorsement by Buffett is like an A-plus or a 3.9 grade average. "I have turned down a lot of people who would like to be in business with me, but Brian and Ian are great guys," he told Showbiz. Buffett's joint venture with Ian and Brian is part of the superstar's more than 20-year relationship with Jamaica.

The Margueritavilles in Negril and Montego Bay, as well as the airport restaurant and the one under construction in Ocho Rios, are part of the Jimmy Buffett chain. As a result of the spelling of the Ian Dear/Brian Jardim sports bars will be changed in December to reflect the Buffett's chain style.

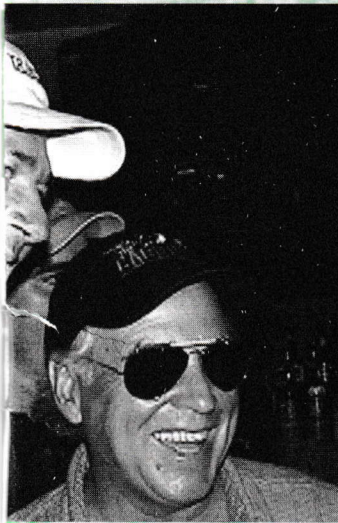

The American singer was introduced to the operators of the local sports bar by music mogul Chris Blackwell. Air Jamaica's vice president of marketing and sales, Allan Chastanet, who was on hand to meet Buffett at the airport, lauded the group's bold move. "No matter how peeved off people are, when they get here that will be forgotten. Look at the smiles on their faces (referring to the customers). If we could get the rest of the airport to be upgraded to this level, people would fly here just to be in the airport", he said.

Many still wonder why Buffett would make such a major investment into Jamaica after the unfortunate mishap his aircraft had with the Jamaican police four years ago. However, the singer dispelled any ill feeling towards the island. "Chris Blackwell and myself decided to fly from Boscobel to Negril for lunch at the Caves. When the pilot was leaving we saw men shooting at the plane. No one was hurt and I never thought twice about coming back to Jamaica after the incident," Buffett told Showbiz.

During his 34-year musical career he has recorded 30 albums and has an admiration for the "King of Reggae" Bob Marley. The American performer is renowned for his sold-out concerts and has a following of people who dress up in parrot-looking costumes, a fad he does not claim to be the inventor of. "I wish I could say the parrot thing was my idea. The fans dress up when we play in the U.S. but it wasn't my idea."

10TH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MINDS DECADE ON DUVAL

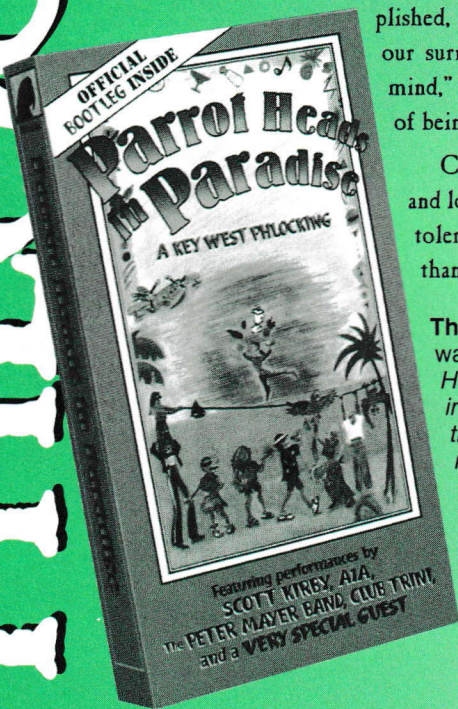

Margaritaville is proud to welcome these PHans to our island for their annual Meeting Of The Minds. It's time for a self-congratulatory pat on the back. These PHolks work tirelessly at the local level in a variety of community efforts, giving of their time, their money, even their blood simply because they feel it's the right thing to do.

Thirty-nine states, 2 Canadian Provinces, even the Land of Oz all contain groups founded on fun and philanthropy. Pittsburgh Parrot Heads rallied around a young boy stricken with cancer. Now in remission, the little 3-year-old was the Grand Marshall at the local Relay For Life and led the cancer survivors lap sporting his Parrot Head helmet. Texas floods last summer prompted Galveston Bay Buffett fans to raise money for the Houston Food Bank, Salvation Army and, rarely considered in more humanitarian causes, the S.P.C.A. Just a couple of examples of what Parrot Heads proudly refer to as Party With A Purpose.

Key West feels the benevolent brunt of thousands of Parrot Heads as well. Local food banks, blood banks and children centers benefit from their fund raising activities. Perhaps this year more than ever, the community spirit will be a welcome relief from the headlines. Jimmy's lyrics offer a recluse from the work-a-day world, but it seemed impossible to escape the recent incomprehensible events of last September 11th. And while a recording artists newsletter is hardly a suitable environment for religious / geo-political editorials, it would be a disservice to ignore the fact. Our function is to crank out the Coconut Telegraph...who did this and that, and, truth be known, sell Margaritaville Stuff. Your function, other than keeping us afloat, is to continue to use Jimmy, Margaritaville, and each other as an escapist safety net. Appreciate what we are, what we have, what we've accomplished, and the postive effect we, as a group, have on our surroundings. Margaritaville may be a "state of mind," but our collective conscious make it a "state of being."

Congratulations to the organizers, both national and local, the participating businesses, the historical tolerance of Key Westers, and mostly the PHans - thanks for coming.

The 1998 Meeting Of The Minds was captured on video. "If you are a Parrot Head, this video compromises a piece of living history. If you are a casual Buffett fan, the bootleg alone is priceless. If you are neither of the above, pack your bags, grab the blender and head down to Key West, as PHead Films welcomes you to one of America's Whackiest Festivals."
