Only In Key West - A hilarious look at island life and everyday living

Key West dangles temptingly from the edge of the "real" world.

It's not just the weather that draws some of us always back to the end of a long, hot road, where anything goes, nobody cares and everyone applauds a sunset that tie-dyes the twilight.

Songs From St. Somewhere – Liner Notes

The island where much of the work on this record was done was originally called Ouanalao by its aboriginal inhabitants. It was renamed St. Barthelemy by Columbus to honor the saint his brother had been named for... But St. Somewhere was not discovered or named by the Admiral of the Oceans. That task fell to a son of a son of a sailor, who was way off course in a bar in Boston – me.

Jimmy Buffett and the Coral Reefer Band at Great Woods

"As Buffett aficionados are well aware, Boat Drinks was written in February 1979 on a particularly frigid evening in Boston, which led to the desire to fly to St. Somewhere, where it is warm. Tonight, New Englanders are especially thrilled and rightfully so, as we have a stake in the namesake of this tour, and in the title of the forthcoming record." Freelance writer, Julia DeStefano reports from the Comcast Center.

Mike Utley inducted into Arkansas Entertainers Hall of Fame

Jimmy Buffett first heard Mr. Utley playing on one of Jerry Jeff Walker's albums. He liked what he heard and asked Mike to play on his first ABC/Dunhill album, A White Sport Coat and a Pink Crustacean. During this time, Utley was touring with Kris Kristofferson and Rita Coolidge and was the musical director of the band Speedway in the movie, A Star is Born. Simultaneously, he began touring with Jimmy and has been with him ever since.
